LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

VOL. IV. LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY MORNING. NOVEMBER 20, 1883. NO. 143.

Day Dispatches.

[By the Western Associated Press.]

THE CHURCH MILITANT.

A Back-sliding Soldier of the Salvation Army on the Rampage.

KINGSTON, Ont., Nov. 19.—A terrible row occurred last night in the Victoria music hall. An ex-member of the Salvation Army, who was intoxicated, entered the hall and struck several individuals. Capt. Thomson, aide de camp to Major Moore, undertook to quiet the disturbance and was knocked over and choked on a bench. Then four police entered and arrested the young man. A small riot followed, and the crowd surged and hustled about the officers of the peace and of the army, who were surrounded and kicked. One was knocked down with a prisoner who scuffled on the floor. The disorder following was something fearful. The police eventually retired without the prisoner, and found difficulty in forcing their way through the mob on the street.

ENGLAND.

Moody and Sankey at Islington—Great Crowds.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The first fortnight of the Moody and Sankey mission at Islington closed on Sunday with four services. The hall was densely crowded at each meeting. Tickets were eagerly sought days beforehand. Standing room was barely obtainable.

De Lesseps' Promises.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—De Lesseps, speaking at Manchester, said he had received assurances from the engineers that the Panama Canal would be open in five years.

BATTLE ON THE NIGER.

A Fierce Fight Between Native Africans and English Sailors.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Advices from the British fleet on the west coast of Africa state that recently 150 English sailors were sent up the Niger to punish the natives at different points on that river for outrages upon explorers and traders. After shelling the town of Ababa, at the head of the Delta, they ascended to Egga, a large town 300 miles from the mouth of the Niger. Here they landed and were at once attacked by the natives. A fierce fight ensued, in which three seamen were killed and several wounded. The attacking party of natives was driven to the bush and the sailors returned to the fleet.

GENERAL NEWS.

The End of Ada Atkinson's Murderer—A Rope's End.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 19.—Three hundred masked men broke into jail and took out Nelling, the murderer of Ada Atkinson. Old man Nelling met them at the door of his cell already dressed and ready to go to his doom. He was quickly walked to a carriage in which was a rope. The only remark he made was "go a little slow, gentlemen; I am older than some of you." He was taken to Oxford and hung immediately.

With Soft Gloves.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Sullivan and Ryan have signed articles for a four-round bout with soft gloves, between January 19th and February, 1884, at San Francisco. The gate receipts to be divided.

A War of Rates Inevitable.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad Saturday afternoon paid over to the Iowa pool $36,000 disputed surplus earnings and $80,000 additional, which squares the pool account to date. The officials of the company, however, still adhere to their purpose to leave the pool, and, under the circumstances, a war of rates, after the lapse of thirty days, is deemed inevitable.

Spanning the Mississippi.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 19.—The Secretary of State licensed this morning the Chain of Rocks Bridge Co., which proposes to bridge the Mississidpi ten miles above the big St. Louis bridge. The capital stock is two millions. The project is believed to be in the interest of the Gould line and the Chicago and Alton Railway.

Fatal Gladness.

NEWPORT, Nov. 19.—George C. Munroe, a prominent citizen, died suddenly this morning. Joy at recovering a verdict against the Aqueduct Bank about ten days ago it is thought had much to do with his death. The case has been in court since 1865.

Mississippi River Steamer Burned.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—The steamer S. C. Parisot, on her way down from Vicksburg, was destroyed by fire. The total cargo, valued at $200,000, is lost. Great excitement prevailed among the passengers. The captain headed the steamer for the bank and succeeded in saving all except one deck hand, who was drowned.

Record of the Walkers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—At 12 o'clock to-day the score in the pedestrian match, now going on at the Pavilion, stood as follows: O'Leary, 53 miles; Hart, 63; Harriman, 56; McIntyre, 70.

Turf Reform.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 19.—The Louisiana, Memphis, Nashville, St. Louis, Louisville, Lexington, Latonia, Washington Park and Chicago Driving Park jockey clubs and the leading breeders of the South and West have accepted the call of the Louisville Jockey Club for a turf conference for the purpose of adopting a uniform scale of weights and rules and to consult as to the adoption of the most stringent measures and laws to eradicate fraud and purify the turf.

The New Standard Time.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The new standard time went into effect at noon yesterday, and changes made on all the public clocks in the large cities excited much interest.

TOPEKA, Nov. 19.—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe will commence to-day and operate the road by central time as far west as Dodge City, Kansas. Beyond that point by mountain time.

Democratic Ward Nominations.

The Democratic nominations for Councilmen in the different wards were as follows:

First Ward: The nomination of Frank Guirado and W. T. Lambie by the citizen's meeting was indorsed.

In the Second Ward Frank E. Day was nominated by a majority of two votes over M. T. Collins.

In the Third Ward the nomination of John O'Neil and W. H. Tuthill by the citizens' meeting, some time since, was indorsed.

In the Fifth Ward D. B. McGary and John B. Niles were nominated.

Frank Guirado is a brother in-law of ex-Governor Downey and is commonly known as Major Guirado. He owns a ranch in the country and has been farming for some time past. He was at one time admitted to the bar, but has never practiced.

W. T. Lambie is a civil engineer and is in the employ of the Southern Pacific railroad. He has the reputation of being capable in his profession but has never figured in public life.

Frank E. Day, the Democratic nominee in the Second Ward, is a member of the wholesale and retail liquor house of Joe Bayer & Co., on Main street. His nomination was evidently made as a concession to the liquor and gambling element of the community.

John O'Neil, one of the nominees in the Third, is an Irishman who formerly kept a laundry on Ninth street. He has served in the Council once before.

W. H. Tuthill is the agent of the Singer sewing machine here. He has never served before in any official capacity in this city.

D. M. McGarey is an Irishman who accumulated a fortune in Chicago and about two years ago came to this city. He is the owner of a fine residence at the corner of Alameda and Kohler streets, and has besides an extensive orchard and vineyard.

John B. Niles is at present a real estate dealer, operating in connection with Pomeroy & Niles. Previously he was associated with his brother, J. M. Niles, in the live-stock business.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1883.

ENTER BUNSBY.

The Evening Express announced a new departure, editorially, a few days since, and declared that it meant to give utterance to "masculine views" of things, and nevermore be an "emasculated sheet." The following extract from an editorial on the Speakership, in yesterday's issue, is, we suppose, to be taken as a sample of the new order of "masculine" literature with which the readers of that sheet are to be served hereafter:

Our readers have probably noticed that the iron works at Pittsburg have been lately shut down and that eight thousand workmen have thus been thrown out of employment. It is quite possible that the suspension of work has been purposely timed for an effect upon Congress, and that it may have its influence on the Speakership issue. It would be highly disastrous to the Democratic party in such close States as New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Indiana, if its opponents could say, with truth, that it had disorganized the labor of the country. If a panic should come as a result of the lack of trade it would probably inure to the advantage of the Democracy. On the other hand, should it come as a result of Democratic tampering with the tariff as it now stands, all four of these States might be very safely placed in the Democratic columns for 1884.

This is "an opinion as is an opinion." The logic of the last sentence is peculiar; we would call it "emasculated" if we had not just been solemnly assured that our esteemed evening cotemporary is not that kind of a hair-pin. The Express declares, in effect, that should a financial panic result from Democratic tampering with the present (Republican) tariff, the four close States of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Indiana "might be very safely placed in the Democratic columns for 1884!" How that can be is past finding out. Only a "strictly independent" paper with Democratic leanings is able to supply the light and logic necessary to make such a proposition clear. The average citizen, with good horse sense, would naturally conclude that Democratic legislative blundering, such as that hypothetically outlined above, would redound to the advantage of the Republicans and to the damage of the Democrats. But Bunsby dissents from the conclusions of the average citizen with good horse sense.

THERE are many questions asked every day by strangers and visitors relative to the boom which Los Angeles is experiencing. They wish to know if the climax is not reached and if it can possibly keep up. Yesterday's Real Estate Reporter, issued by Gillette, Gibson & Wood, will furnish them a little practical information. For two years past the record has been increasing, and while the sales have been growing larger in volume the mortgages have continued to be remarkably few. The sales, as placed on the record books of the County Recorder yesterday, aggregate $232,396, which certainly shows a most active condition of the real-estate market.

GOV. STONEMAN, in a letter to a boss Granger, expresses himself adversely to the proposition to call an extra session of the Legislature. This was to be expected. He intimates, however, that if the railroad tax case now before the Supreme Court be decided against the State, and the railroad companies refuse to pay their taxes, he will regard it as an extraordinary occasion, and will call a special session and submit to it not only the tax question, but such other subjects as the importance of the occasion may require. He expresses confidence that the Supreme Court will decide in favor of the State.

THE New York Herald thinks the election result in that State has quite destroyed Gov. Cleveland's availability as a presidential candidate. And it finds in said result what a tremendous president-killer is John Kelly—that he destroyed Cleveland and destroyed Hancock. We consider John Kelly a highly useful statesman. He is the living realization of a sort of political long-felt-want, so to speak.

ELEGANT furniture is now being made exclusively of yellow pine by several factories in Paris, France. It is stated that most beautiful and striking effects are produced by this wood in the hands of skilled French cabinet makers. The curled variety of pine lumber is much sought after, and articles of furniture made from it sell at very high prices.

WILL L. VISSCHER is delivering a lecture entitled, "Sixty Minutes in the War." It takes a man who spent sixty minutes in the war to tell all about it. Beside such a historian the old veterans who spent four years learning the bloody trade of war in the field, and on the rough edge of battle, must stand back.

CALIFORNIA DEL SUR.

An Eminent West Virginia Editor Writes About Los Angeles,

And Her Wonderful Variety of Climate and Productions—All Kinds of Vegetables at all Times of the Year, Etc., Etc.

Special Cor. of the Wheeling Intelligencer.]

LOS ANGELES, NOV. 6.—" " They found here a Summer-land—a land of the olive and vine—a land of the orange, almond and fig—a land of the magnolia and the palm—and so the sentimental old padres, who established one of their missions near here, called it "Pueblo de la reina de los angeles"—or, "the town of the queen of the angels."

I do not mean that they found oranges, almonds, figs, etc., when they came here about 120 years ago, but simply a country where those tropical trees and plants were readily and congenially domesticated in the soil.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

But putting aside romance, in the sense of seeing and escribing things from the standpoint of imagination rather than of reality, I may appropriately say that this is one of the most romantic regions that I have yet seen in my travels. This place is really situated in a peculiar and remarkable region. You will see by the maps that it is on the line of the 34th parallel, or about the line of central Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia. And yet the climate is not by any means the climate of that line in those States. It has all their winter warmth without the enervating heat of their summers. It has all their capacity to produce tropical and semi-tropical fruits, and yet it has, what they have not, an additional capacity to produce the fruits of more northern latitudes. It is not only the land of the orange, the lemon, the fig, the olive, the almond, the magnolia and the palm, but also of the apple, pear, peach, apricot, cherry, quince and plum. But, more than all the rest, it is the home of the vine in its greatest variety and luxuriance in the United States.

This is the 6th day of November, and yet the weather is as clear, bright and beautiful as on the 6th day of September in the Ohio valley. In fact the October and November weather that I have seen in California, and especially in this part of the State, resembles our best September weather. It is crisp and cool ish in the mornings and evenings and quite summerlike from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. during the day. It differs from the Ohio valley September weather, however, in the fact that these fall nights bring no frosts with them. It is its proximity to the ocean on one side and the mountains on the other that supplies the refreshing air by day and the low temperature of the nights, and yet wards off frost. And this is the reason why tender garden vegetation can be grown in the California valleys, and especially in this valley, the year round. The intermingling of sea and mountain air prevents precipitation of frost save occasionally in the winter in certain localities. In many localities there is no frost the year round.

Visitors at the seaside in this region are yet bathing daily in the surf. I went down to Santa Monica, eighteen miles south of this, and took a plunge in the waves of the great Pacific the other day, and found it quite refreshing " "

METEOROLOGY OF THE COUNTRY.

A record of the weather in the Ohio valley will show that three-fourths of the days of the year are cloudy. A similar record here will show that this proportion is reversed, and that three-fourths of them are clear and bright. Is this not something remarkable? There are said to be about 65 out of the 365 days on which it rains. The rains are as often by night as by day, especially the heavier rains, and three days of rain in the winter is often followed by a week of warm and sunshiny weather. The country is covered with its verdure after the rainy season sets in, and you see it at its best in the spring. Green garden truck is on the tables of the people the year round. We are now eating fresh peas, beans, cucumbers, new potatoes, young cabbage, corn, onions, radishes, lettuce, &c., the same as on the 1st of July in the Ohio valley.

California is a unique State. It resembles no other that I have seen, and I have now seen nearly all of them. In some respects it is the most attractive of them all. It has almost every variety of climate and soil. It is a land of mountains, foothills and valleys. The soil and the climate of one locality differ radically from the soil and climate of another locality ten, or even five, miles away. There are spots never touched by frost, even in the winter, separated only by a few yards from other spots that are touched occasionally in mid-winter. There are spots where the ground will easily produce 75 bushels of corn to the acre separated only by a pistol shot from spots where the ground will not grow ten bushels. A ranch where oranges mature luxuriantly and profitably will adjoin another where it will not pay to plant them. You will find adobe soil, sandy loam and vegetable loam in close proximity, all good for different but non-interchangeable crops. One, two or three sections of a county, as in this one, will grow all the best raisin grapes that can be grown, and one, two or three other sections the best wine grapes. Half a dozen crops of Alfalfa grass in a season can be cut off some lands, while others not a mile away will scarcely produce one fair crop. Soil that is wet and needs to be drained adjoins soil that is the better of more or less irrigation.

From all this you will readily understand that California is a land of infinite variety, and it is this variety that in the eyes of its people constitute its peculiar attractions. Concerning some of these attractions I shall have more to say in a subsequent letter.

The Political Chameleon on His Travels.

From the Ventura Signal, Dem.]

Chas. Whitehead, who was here recently negotiating for the purchase of the Signal, will take charge of the Los Angeles Republican, a new paper to be started in the Angel City—to be Republican and anti-prohibition.

[In response to inquiries about the aforesaid, the TIMES gives the following information:

Mr. Whitehead in 1880 was on the staff of the San Francisco Examiner, and a leading officer of one of the Democratic clubs of that city in the Presidential campaign. During its progress he came to Los Angeles and visited the lieu lands, the scene of the well-known Rosecrans grab, and wrote a series of letters whitewashing the Democratic candidate's career in what has been widely denounced as one of the most infamous acts of land piracy ever perpetrated in Los Angeles county, and by which a large number of settlers were evicted from their homes. The circumstances are well known to all old residents. In 1882 Mr. Whitehead "severed his connection" with the Examiner and became city editor of the Los Angeles Evening Telegram, a sheet which suspended at the end of the 26th day of its brief career. He then went to Portland, Oregon, with the remains of the defunct Telegram, and assisted at its resurrection in the form of the Northwest News. After a little time he broke with Nathan Cole, Jr., and returned to California. At Santa Barbara he associated himself with the Press, but after a short connection with that paper, once more "severed his connection," and for several months past, up to a few weeks since, has edited (and not without ability) the Daily Independent of the same town. Having "severed his connection" with that paper, he is now about to re-enter the field of Los Angeles journalism. With his record of a thick-and-thin Democratic partisan, he is of course pre-eminently qualified to take charge of a Republican paper. He has doubtless concluded, notwithstanding his ardent advocacy of Hancock and "Old Rosy" in 1880, that it is more desirable to be on the winning side in 1884.]

Printing and Binding

There is nothing in the Printing and Binding line which the TIMES-MIRROR Printing, Binding and Ruling House, the oldest and largest in Southern California, is not prepared to execute in a manner equal to that of any office in the State. Books, magazines and pamphlets bound in Turkish leather, Morocco, cloth, sheepskin, or in any style desired. Our work is guaranteed to be equal to that done in San Francisco

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[This is the TIMES-MIRROR'S Public Forum upon which all who have anything pertinent timely and interesting to say, on topics of current interest, may stand and give their independent opinions to the people; the writers being responsible for their own sentiments and statements. Correspondents are politely urged to be clear, concise, and to the point; to write plainly, and upon one side of the sheet only.]

The Vatican.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: The following paragraph appears in your paper of Sunday morning:

ROME, Nov. 17.—Diretto says: It is stated that the Vatican consented to appoint a Nuncio to the United States in accordance with the wishes of the American bishops now in Rome. Diretto expresses the opinion that the American Congress will approve such appointment.

It is to be hoped the government will do no such thing. It is the well settled policy of our government to have nothing to do with religious masters; and, besides, it is not probable that it will give apparent precedence to a church whose tendencies are in direct opposition to our system of government. TRUXTON.

NOV. 19, 1883.

[There is obviously some blunder in the above quoted telegraphic dispatch. Congress has no more to do with the appointment of a Nuncio than it has with the appointment of a King of the Cannibal Islands.—ED. TIMES.]

For a Womans' Suffrage Union.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: Thanks, Mr. Editor, for that expression of your opinion about the Womans' Christian Suffrage Union in yesterday's paper. As you truly say, it savors of demogogism or sycophancy. There are many honest well-wishers and able workers for the cause, who are thus left out in the cold. Because they cannot utter the "Shibboleth" of a certain party, because they cannot consistently subscribe to an orthodox creed, they must be forbidden to do good to humanity.

Twenty, thirty, forty years ago the pioneers in the causes of Abolition, Temperance and Woman Suffrage endured much opposition from the church, but when they had succeeded, through much tribulation, in imbuing the minds of men with a better spirit,—when the church found that the current of public opinion was likely to turn against it, forthwith it turned around and stepped in, saying: "Here, we will carry on this business in future. It shall no longer be in the hands of infidels. It is now bound to succeed and we will have the credit of it and under our banners it shall march to victory." And by their ecclesiastical machinery and power they so monopolize the field, that every "infidel" is kept out, however upright and capable he may be, however much he may have heretofore labored and sacrificed for the cause. Is this an illustration of the spirit of Jesus? I trow not. E. A. K.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: In the reported proceedings of the Council, at its session of the 17th instant, I find the following:

Mr. Moore moved that the Mayor be instructed to sign warrant No. 446, drawn by order of the Council, December 5, 1881, for $2650, in favor of Walter Rogers, on judgment for injuries received. Adopted.

From this action of the Council it would appear that this body does not recognize any law, either moral, legislative or constitutional, as superior to its own will and pleasure, and ignores all obligations to act for the best interests of this community.

If I understand this Rogers matter, there never was any judgment in his favor against the city, nor does he at this time even pretend to have any claim against the city for damages suffered by him. It is true that he did claim damages of the city, but it was determined that the city was not responsible to him in damages.

He then claimed damages from Mr. J. Khurts, and he was paid by Mr. Khurts, who subsequently sought to be reimbursed from the city treasury, but the then Mayor, in conformity with the opinion of the law officer of the city, refused to approve the order of the Council authorizing this reimbursement.

It remains to be seen whether the Mayor, who is a professional lawyer and an able jurist, will follow the dictation of the Council or uphold the law and defend this community from this raid upon their treasury, as well as the many which may follow, if this one should prove successful.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

Monster Pear.

Mr. Buckley, from Limestone, N. Y., who has been sojourning at the Pico House for a couple of weeks taking in the beauties of this country and making a thorough investigation of the inducements held out to settlers, captured a monster pear at the Washington Gardens, weighing two and a half pounds, which he sent to a friend in New York City. His friend has been engaged in raising fruits for thirty years, and prides himself on having the finest fruits in the State. His friend had the pear photographed and has sent the photos to his customers and correspondents throughout the country, showing what is possible with the Bartlett pear in California.

WE BRING GLAD TIDINGS!

HEALTH! HEALTH! HEALTH! HEALTH! HEALTH! HEALTH!

Health restored and life prolonged to suffering humanity, by the most wonderful curative agents ever discovered. I invite the sick, no matter what their diseases may be, to call and investigate for themselves before abandoning all hope, for it will cost you nothing. I give no encouragement unless there is a fair prospect of making a cure. I will endeavor to be candid in my opinion, and reasonable in my charges, I claim not to cure everybody, but to cure all that can be cured. I am formerly from New York city, and a graduate of one of the best medical colleges in the United States, and a most thorough Electrician, and have had many years successful practice in the treatment of both acute and chronic diseases. To remove all doubts and convince my patients that I claim nothing but what I am, I refer to my diplomas and the numerous recommendations in my possession, which will always be ready for inspection at my office. TO THE LADIES. To the ladies I would say: You, whose sufferings have become intolerable, and who have suffered a thousand deaths from those diseases so common to your sex, give me a call, for I CAN CURE YOU WITHOUT FAIL, and make your lives once again worth living for. And all consultations will be strictly private and confidential. YOUNG MEN. To those young men who are suffering from year to year, and whose vital powers have become impaired, and nervous system wasting and broken down, and are suffering all the horrors from the effects of youthful follies; COME AND SEE ME. I have a sure preventative of premature decay and early death. To those who from indiscretions have contracted private diseases, and are desirous of being cured, come without fail, for I can guarantee you a speedy cure. I treat with success all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, Liver, Head, Nerves, Kidneys, Bladder, Womb, Blood, Affections of the Urinary Organs, Gravel, Piles, Scrofula, Rheumatism Catarrh, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Eye and Ear, etc., etc. Consultation free at my office. Larronde Block, Room 5, upstairs. Corner Spring and First, opposite Postoffice. From 9 to 12 a. m., 1 to 5 and 6 to 8 p. m.

THE MADON MURDER.

Commencement of the Trial of Mrs. Amadon.

An Immense Crowd Present—No Material Change in Most of the Testimony—How the Accused Woman Appeared.

The trial of Mrs. Ella Amadon and Lottie Greenleaf, charged with being accessory to the murder of Henry Amadon, was set for trial yesterday in Judge Sepulveda's court. On motion of the District Attorney, the trial of Mrs. Amadon was commenced first, and, accordingly, a jury was empaneled immediately, with the following result: J. Mand, H. J. Robinson, Henry Clawson, J. H. Snyder, W. L. Rubottom, Louis Melzer, W. Thompson, E. Bowers, J. C. Sutton, Geo. Cate, N. M. Bolen, J. E. Pleasant. The work of selecting the jury occupied all the morning and at noon the court took a recess until 2 p. m.

On reassembling, a crowd of curious spectators filled the courtroom and every inch of space outside of the railing was occupied. Mrs. Amadon, veiled and in deep mourning, sat by her Counsel, Col. Wells, H. G. Gage and Messrs. Del Valle & Du Puy. All the seats back of the prisoner were occupied by her female relatives and friends of whom there were six or seven present. The prisoner remained perfectly quiet during the testimony and showed no sign of interest in the proceedings except occasionally twitching nervously the handkerchief she held in her hands. She has evidently suffered during her confinement and her face is thin and pale. The testimony given yesterday did not materially differ from that offered in the Foster trial. The witnesses, with one exception, were the same and it will therefore be unnecessary to give the testimony in full, a brief resume of what was done is, however, appended in order that the connection may be complete.

The first witnesses placed on the stand were Doctors Nadeau and Ross, who, as at the preceding trial, related the cause of the death of Amadon and the course of the bullets.

Henry Patterson, a locomotive engineer on the Southern Pacific railroad, followed and related again the circumstance of Foster's having a pistol in his possession while braking between here and Mojave. He also identified a pistol shown as being like the one that Foster carried.

P. B. Wright, another locomotive engineer, testified concerning the return trip made with him by Amadon and the fact that he left at the coal bins and started for home on the morning of the murder.

Edward St. Clair testified to hearing the four shots in the morning and between the first two shots the cry of "Oh, murder," and between the last two, "Oh, God! this is murder!" He described the position of the body and stated that he called Billings, the brother-in-law of the deceased, who came out of the house and went with him and viewed the body. Neither Mrs. Amadon nor Mrs. Greenleaf was present at the time, but they came shortly afterwards. Both were crying. They stood a short distance from the body and remained some time but said nothing.

Mrs. St. Clair testified as to hearing the shots and the exclamations—also concerning the position of the body. Her evidence was, in every respect, similar to that given during the preceding trial.

The testimony of Mrs. Dora Vedder, being of more direct importance in the case of the accused woman, is given in full: I own the house the Amadons used to live in. Heard two or three shots the morning of the murder; was waked up by the pistol shots. I was acquainted with both Amadon and his wife. I have seen Foster frequently at the house—Amadon was always away on the road when this occurred. The Amadons left my house in July. They had been residing there for four or five months. I saw Foster at the house at various times of the day and night. At one time he was there between 7 and 8 p. m. and again at 7 and 8 o'clock the succeeding morning.

Cross-examination: I don't know the exact date I saw him there. It was sometime in July. I have seen Foster and Mrs. Amadon in bed together. I only saw them once together in that way. Mrs. Amadon had been sick for two or three days, and I went in to see how she was. Her brother-in-law, Billings, was there. I went into the bedroom and found Foster and Mrs. Amadon in bed. Foster got up immediately and went into the adjoining room. He had his pants on and a red flannel shirt. I am certain he was under the bed cover when I went in. I did not notice whether he had his shoes on or not. I asked Mrs. Amadon how she felt, and she said she felt better. The Amadon children were in the room; the oldest is a little girl, eight years of age. I did not go to see Mrs. Amadon till she left the house, when I went to bid her good-bye. I have not been on good terms with Mrs. Amadon for some time. We quarreled over her chickens coming into my yard; she claimed that I killed her chickens.

Chas. A. Young, a new witness for the prosecution, testified as follows: I live near Date street; was awakened on the morning of September 25th by a pistol shot and in an interval heard two more. I also heard the words, "O God! murder, murder!" Afterwards I heard footsteps. I went out and crossed the bridge and soon after learned that a man had been shot; went up with St. Clair and Herbst and viewed the body. [The witness described its position.] Am not certain whether Butler or any one else had a light; don't remember seeing any.

At this point the Court adjourned until 9 a. m. to-day.

THE MURDERERS IN COURT.

Kimball, Foster and Armento at the Bar of Justice.

Yesterday was the time set for the sentence of the three convicted murderers, William Y. Kimball, John A. Foster and Armado Armento. The three were brought into court shortly after ten o'clock, being carefully guarded. Foster and Kimball looked as if they fully realized their awful condition and were suffering intense mental agony. Armento alone had an air of stolid indifference. When the court opened John Robarts, Esq., counsel for Kimball, asked that the sentence be postponed for one day in order that he might have time to make a motion for a new trial. H. T. Gage, Esq., counsel for Foster, made a similar request in behalf of his client. Both were granted and the respective motions will be heard at 8:30 a. m. to-day. Armento was then sentenced by the Court to imprisonment in the State prison for the term of his natural life. The trio were then taken back to jail from whence they will be speedily conveyed to San Quentin unless the motions for new trials are granted.

Death of A. J. Cooper.

Mr. A. J. Cooper, father of Mrs. W. E. Beeson, died at his residence, corner Figueroa and Courthouse streets, on yesterday morning, at an early hour, of consumption, and will be buried Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of the lodge of Ancient Order of United Workmen, of this city. The funeral exercises will take place at the residence. Mr. Cooper has been secretary of the Los Angeles Gas Company for a year or so past.

A School for Hoodlumism.

Great complaint is made of the little shavers who are allowed to run the streets until a late hour in the vicinity of the corner of Commercial and Los Angeles streets, and along and about Alameda and First streets, as well as several other localities, where they are led into all kinds of mischief. These little fellows, at first harmless in their play, will soon graduate as first-class gamins and hoodlums, unless something is done to herd them after night.

Accident.

M. B. Farris, of the firm of Farris & Wiles, contractors, while at work on the new building on corner of Sixth and Main streets, received a falling brick on or near the spine, above the hips, which will disable him for some time. Fortunately he was rising from a stooping position. If he were standing erect the brick falling endways would have crushed in his skull.

Fire Alarm.

The alarm Sunday afternoon was caused by a fire in the old brick house at Jeff White's place, on Macy street, near the covered bridge. The Two's responded, but as they did not have hose enough, were not able to do much good. The fire was extinguished after it burned the inside and a portion of the furniture, but the loss was not very great.

New Postoffice.

The postoffice just established on the Laguna rancho, San Diego county, is named Elsinore. The subdivision of lands being made by Messrs. Graham, Collier and Heald, on this rancho, will bear the same name, and will include the whole body of the lake and lands contiguous.

The services at the Cathedral on Sunday were of an unusually interesting character. The party of priests who are sojourning in Los Angeles for a few days participated, which had the effect of drawing a large congregation. The full choir, with Professor Knell at the organ, filled the vast building with melodious sound. Rev. Father Fisher, of this city, celebrated high mass, when Rev. Father Riordan of the visiting priests from Chicago, delivered an eloquent sermon from the passage of scripture relating to the grain of mustard seed, which held the close attention of his audience, many of whom, who are not celebrated for their devotion to any particular church or creed, but went to hear this able divine from mere curiosity, were as much interested in the discourse as the most devout follower of the cross.

Lively Runaway.

Yesterday, about quitting time for dinner, while a teamster was unhitching one of the dirt teams on New High street at the end of the Bumiller lot, the team became frightened and ran down New High street, which was crowded with vehicles, first colliding with one of the dirt wagons and then with a buggy containing Mrs. A. S. Moore, who resides on the Dreyfus tract near Mr. Crow's place. Mrs. Moore, seeing a collision inevitable, jumped out and tried to quiet the horse, which she succeeded in doing, with some difficulty, after her buggy was pretty badly broken. Her courage and coolness saved her from a severe injury, which she barely escaped, with some slight bruises and abrasion of the skin on her wrist.
